KENTUCKY PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

TO: Main Case File - Case No. 2007-00494
FROM: Anita Mitchell, Staff Attorney
DATE: January 29, 2008
RE: Telephonic Conference of January 28, 2008

On January 28, 2008, representatives of Heritage Operating L.P ("Heritage"), Bright's Propane Service, Inc. ("Bright's) collectively ("Joint Applicants"), the Attorney General's Office of Rate Intervention ("Attorney General") and Commission Staff ("Staff") held a telephonic conference to discuss the Agreed Stipulation, the Joint Applicants' petition for confidential protection and various procedural matters. The participants in the phone conference were:

Deborah T. Eversole	Counsel for Heritage
Helen C. Helton	Counsel for Bright's
Larry Cook	Attorney General
Dennis Howard	Attorney General
Gary Glover	Staff
Dawn McGee	Staff
Jeff Shaw	Staff
Anita Mitchell	Staff

Staff began the conference by discussing the purpose of the conference and raising certain procedural matters. Staff pointed out that the Joint Applicants had requested a hearing in the event the Commission denied their petition for confidential protection, but subsequently filed a motion requesting that the case be submitted to the Commission on the record. The Joint Applicants' counsel said they needed to speak to their respective clients concerning their petition for confidential protection and would report back to the participants.<sup>1</sup>

To: Mitchell, Anita L (PSC)
Cc: Helen C. Helton; Howard, Dennis (KYOAG); Cook, Larry (KYOAG)
Subject: Procedure Going Forward in 2007-00494

Anita, Helen and I believe that the parties' recent Motion to Submit this case covers all issues raised within it, including confidentiality issues. Although Joint Applicants had requested a hearing in our Petition for Confidential Treatment filed January 14, 2008, such request is waived.

Joint Applicants ask that the Commission enter its Order on all issues as soon as possible.

Thanks very much,

Deborah Eversole
